PBTK Promotes Four Accountants to Manager

[LAS VEGAS, Nev.] October 19, 2009 – Local full service accounting firm Piercy Bowler Taylor and Kern (PBTK) announces that Lisa Cross, Mike Dickinson, Cori Lynn Knauss and Shannon Swaner have been promoted from Senior Associate to Manager within the firm.

Cross has been with PBTK since July 2004. Her services include tax preparation and review for individuals, partnerships, limited liability companies, corporations and not-for-profits. In addition to her work in the tax department, she also performs compilation services.

Dickinson has been with PBTK since 2003. He works primarily with closely-held businesses, professional corporations and not-for-profit organizations on tax preparation, QuickBooks support and representation before the Internal Revenue Service.

Knauss has been with the Firm since March 2005. Her responsibilities include directing multiple audit and review engagements, supervising audit staff, and evaluating the efficiency of internal control. She works primarily with casino resorts, other gaming enterprises (including sports wagering and race wagering), retail enterprises, employee benefit plans, and private clubs.

Swaner has been with the firm since January 2005 and her responsibilities include technical accounting and audit issue resolution, leadership and staff training, and firm events within the community. Swaner passed the final section of the CPA exam in November 2007 and is one of few in the Nation to pass all of the CPA exam sections on her initial sitting.

About Piercy Bowler Taylor & Kern
