Nonprofit Financial Management and Governance Forum Presented by Local Professional Firms

[LAS VEGAS, Nev.] January 12, 2010 – Local full service accounting firm Piercy Bowler Taylor and Kern (PBTk), law firm Marquis & Aurbach and Merrill Lynch Wealth Management will be presenting a free financial management and governance seminar for local nonprofit organizations on February 5, 2010 at Brendan Theatres inside the Palms Casino & Resort.

Speakers will come from the three presenting organizations, and topics include:

- Seven deadly sins for nonprofits
- Board/Trustee liability and tracking board decisions
- Navigating the bumpy audit road
- Don't fear the new 990
- Risks tolerance and investment policies
- Trends in philanthropy
- Budgeting for planning and control

The seminar will provide much-needed resources for nonprofits that are often on tight budgets and lack access to the types of professionals who will be speaking. Nonprofit board members, CFOs, Treasurers, Audit, Finance or Budget Committee Chairs, Executive Directors or other financial officers are encouraged to attend and take the information back to their boards and officers.
